

Raise your voice!

Join Carers Victoria today!

Carers Victoria is the state-wide voice leading change in services, systems and supports for caring families.

We aim to improve the health, wellbeing, resilience and economic security of caring families, via:

- Emotional support and counselling
- Research, policy and systemic change
- Practical support and respite
- Education and development
- Information and advice

Our vision is that caring is a shared community responsibility.

Carers Victoria members support us in making a difference for caring families.

Nominated Representatives of memberships receive:

- voting rights at Board elections
- eligibility to nominate for Board positions
- rights to attend general meetings
- Carers in Victoria quarterly newsletter
- access to Carers Victoria's library (with free mail out and reply paid envelope for return)
